

January Newsletter for Division 5B

BY: Leah Voudren, Lt. Governor

New Business:

- District Convention
- International Convention
- Paying dues

Old Business:

- Running for Office
- Spring Rally
- Most Outstanding Key Clubber and Delegates

District Convention :

Please remember about going to district Convention! We would love to have all of you come, and spend the weekend in Lexington! This is an amazing opportunity to learn more about the club as a whole. That weekend we will be doing workshops, a service project, and meeting all kinds of different people. I hope to see you there!

International Convention:

Chicago, Illinois is where this year ICON is being held! July 2-8 is the official dates and prices are already up!

Quad (4 people to a room) $899

Triple (3 people to a room) $999

Double (2 people to a room) $1189

Single (1 person to a room) 1739

Includes: Registration, transportation, hotel accommodations, all activities, Breakfast, and at least two dinners.

Dues:

Delinquent clubs becomes suspended on February 1st. If your club hasn't paid dues, the club cannot run an officer or vote at spring rally. Please contact me if you have any questions!

Email: leah@ktkey.org

Running for Office:

Spring rally is when we as a division will vote for officers. You should plan to give a speech about why you would be the best option! If you win office, you must attend DCON! You must remember that if you club has paid, you may not running or vote for ab officer either. Please contact me with questions!

Email: leah@ktkey.org

Spring Rally:

February 24 is the official day for my spring rally! Northview Academy is where the rally will be held. We will vote on new officers! Please try to be there, so you can help decide who is going to be officers! I hope to see you there!

Most Outstanding Key Clubber and delegates :

Please remember to have the most Outstanding Key Clubber and delegates ready by Spring rally! The Most Outstanding Key Clubber go to someone who your club thinks has done the most community service or a leader within your club. We will announce the name of the person for each club at the rally!