Kiwanis Family Conference

November 2nd-4th at Black Mountain, NC is a great event to participate in. It'll be a weekend of building relationships between the Kiwanis family. Over 200 members of the entire Kiwanis family attends. You'll gather for leadership, bonding, and family spirit. Don't miss out on this chance to meet international people ranging in various departments of the Kiwanis Family!

Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF

Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF helps fund the Eliminate Project by collecting spare change or donations door to door on Halloween. All of the money will go towards the fight against Maternal and Neonatal tetanus which affects an infant's high sensitivity to light, sound, and touch. The Kiwanis family is making a great impact each year by raising thousands of dollars to meet our promise of $3 million to UNICEF. Make a global impact by ordering the boxes from the link below and start becoming part of a global project!

DCON

District convention is held on March 22-24th in Franklin, TN. There will be a large service project, a district dance, elections for board positions, etc. It's a great time to meet other Key clubbers and also a chance to meet next year's district leaders! At fall rally, the theme for DCON will be announced.

Key Club Week

November 6th-10th is Key Club week! This week gives your community the opportunity to see what Key Club is truly about and a time to show your school the impact your club has made. Each day of the week emphasis on service and promote the club's core values. Some days would be showing appreciation, connect with Kiwanis, or random acts of kindness. Be sure to advertise each day through posters, speaking, and taking action. More information on Key Club week and how to get it started:
