DIVISIONAL COUNCIL MEETING (DCM)

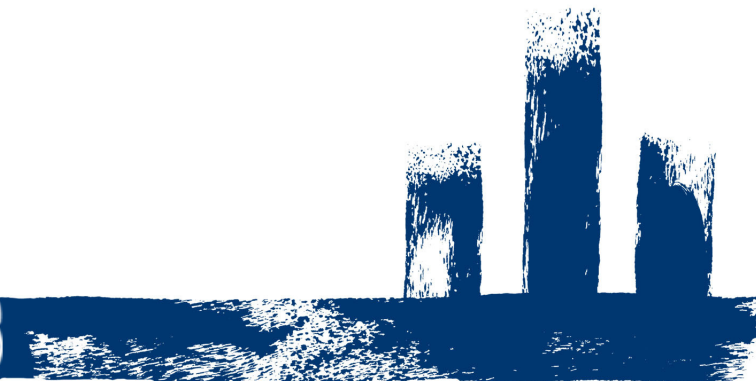

As part of our new adventure together this year, I will be planning a DCM for sometime at the end of July. Across the District, every LTG holds a DCM to bring their division together and have fun activities. You all are all invited to mine and anybody who may seem interested in Key Club. Not all the details have been finalized, but we will all have a blast I guarantee it!

SUMMER

There is nothing planned right now for our division, but if you have any ideas then please let me know. Also, I would love to come to your events or such, so let me know of anything happening and I will try my best to come.
